

Sermon Title: Healthy Relationships

Date: Sunday, Sunday, November 26, 2017

Speaker: Pastor J.

Background Scripture: Ephesians 4:3, Proverbs 12:16 (KJV) (MSG)

Jumpstart and Review:

When unresolved issues are tolerated within relationships (esp the Church), the resulting unsettledness wreaks havoc on those involved. Health emerges in relationships (esp. the Church) when those involved promote & encourage a sense of unity in the bond of love (peace) (ref. Eph. 4:3). Possessing this trait doesn't mean that everyone in a relationship (esp. the Church) always agrees with everyone else or that there are never any problems. It simply means that when problems do occur, we take the time & effort to resolve them in a timely manner. No relationship (esp. the Church) is problem-free, nor should we expect it to be.

Q.F.C. (Questions for Consideration)

1. What factors can make it difficult or challenging for an organization to work through its conflicts?

2. Read Proverbs 12:16. In what situations might it be wise to overlook an insult?

3. What is one action you can take this week to promote or restore greater unit in a relationship (esp. within the Church)?
