Speaker: Pastor J.

Background Scripture: Luke 19:36-38 (KJV) Matthew 27:15-17; 20-21 (KJV)

Jumpstart and Review:

The phrase “Palm Sunday” comes from a well-known gesture reserved for Royalty and returning war heroes.

How Can We Develop A Committed Faith?

#1. A Committed Faith Is Not Self-Centered; But Christ-Centered

Sounds obvious, but we often miss it. Many times, we say to God, “Here’s is my schedule, here’s my agenda... Get in where you fit in.”

#2. A Committed Faith Is Relationship Driven.

A Committed Faith comes only through a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. It’s through Jesus Christ that we learn how to stand when everything in us screams lay down and give up!

#3. A Committed Faith Is Not Moved By Our Personal Trials And Crises.

A Committed Faith takes the good with the bad, knowing that God is right there with us every step of the way!

QFC (Questions For Consideration)

1. How does a relationship with Christ help keep us faithful (ref. Heb. 11:1)?

2. How then do we practically build relationship with Christ Jesus in a world that seems to fight against that very thing?
